DIRECTOR BIOGRAPHY

Jared P. Scott is an award-winning filmmaker and NY Times Bestseller. His feature films include The Age of Consequences, Requiem for the American Dream, Disruption, and Do the Math - which have been released theatrically (US, Canada, UK), premiered at top-tier festivals (TriBeCa, HotDocs, AFI, IDFA, Sheffield), charted at #1 on iTunes & Amazon, and are distributed in over 200 countries & territories (NETFLIX, STARZ, PBS, ABC, Al-Jazeera, IFC, Documentary Channel).

Jared's climate films have screened at high-level events (NASA, NATO, US Congress, EU Parliament, UK Parliament), with over 200 environmental orgs (Sierra Club, WWF, 350.org, LCV), and over 500 universities worldwide.

His films helped spark the fossil fuel divestment movement and galvanized the largest climate march in history days before the 2014 UN Climate Summit.
